From Thursday October 11 to Monday October 15. 1683.

Whiteball, October 13.

THere has been presented to His Majesty a very Loyal Address in French, from the Governor and States in Jersey, which, as likewise that which follows from the Borough of Agmondisham, His Majesty received very Graciously.

May it please Your Majesty.

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects of Your antient Borough of Agmondisham in the County of Bucks, having with a just and due sense of Gods Mercy to us, and all other Your Majesties dutiful and obedient Subjects of all Your Dominions, with thankful and sincere hearts, given Praises to Almighty God for Your Majesties and Royal Brothers Happy Deliverance from the most Villainous, Bloody, and Detestable Conspiracy of the most Inhumane Wretches that had laid wait to destroy the Sacred Person of so good and gracious a Soveraign, together with Your Dear Brother. We humbly beg leave to prostrate our selves at Your Royal Feet, to express with all Humility and Sincerity the hearty Abominations we have and ever shall have, of these and all other wicked and Damnable Associators against Your most Gracious Majesty, who is the best of Kings, and under whom we are blessed with the best of Governments, and whose Succession is established, and we shall pray and endeavour it ever may be so in Your Royal Line. And we cannot without trouble of mind, remember the unhappy Design of some men amongst us, who endeavoured to elect a Representative in Parliament for this Your Borough, who is now accused of this Horrid Conspiracy, and shall for the future take care to send no Members to Parliament, but such as are of known Loyalty to Your Majesty, Your Royal Family and Government established by Law. And as we humbly beg pardon for what's past, so we heartily pray that whoever hath imagined evil in his heart against Your Sacred Person, Your Happy Government, or just and due Succession, may not only be detected, but have the reward of his wickedness, and be brought to condign Punishment, be taken from amongst the Living, and their names become infamous to Posterity. In confirmation of which, our Loyal desires, we humbly offer to Your Majesties Service our Lives and Fortunes, and shall ever pray, as becomes dutiful Subjects, that Your Majesty may long Reign over us, and that there may never want of Your Line to do so while this World endures.

There have been likewise presented to His Majesty very Loyal Addresses from the following Counties and Corporations in Ireland, which His Majesty received with His wonted Grace and Goodness.

FRom the Soveraign Burgesses, Common Council, and Free-men of the Borough of Catherlagh, July 30. 1683.

From the Grand-Jury at the Assizes held at Inish for the County of Clare, on the sixth of August 1683. together with the High-Sheriff, Noblemen, Justices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the said County.

From the Mayor, Governor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Common-Council, and Citizens of the City of Limerick, and the Grand-Jury of the County of the said City, at an Assizes held at the Guild-hall of the said City, on the seventh day of August, 1683.

From the Grand-Jury of the Body of the County of Limerick, at the Assizes held at Limerick, the eleventh day of August, 1683. and of the Clergy, Nobility, Knights, Gentry, and Inhabitants of the said County.

From the Soveraign Portrieves, Burgesses, and Free-men of the antient Corporation of Kildare, at a General Assembly held the fourteenth of August 1683.

From the Commissioners of Array, Justices of Peace, Grand-Jury, and others, met at a special Sessions of the Peace, held at Omagh in the County of Tyrone, on the 23. of August 1683.

From the Corporation of Athy in the County of Kildare, at a Common Assembly held for the said Borough, on the 25th of August 1683.

Dantzicke, Septemb. 28. Our Polish Letters inform us, That on the 14th instant the Sieur Merinska, marched from Leopol with part of the Troops of Lithuania, to joyn the King of Poland in Hungary. That several thousand Cossackes were arrived at Leopol, who having received a months Pay, and being new Cloathed, would likewise march to the Army in Hungary: And that they had advice, that Caminiec was ill provided, and the Bassa in much fear the Poles had a design upon that place.

Vienna, October 3. From Presburg we have advice that the Count de Staremberg was arrived with the Regiments of Schaffenberg and Sousa, in the Imperial Army, which was encamped the 29th past, about four Leagues beyond Presburg, the Polish Army being advanced six miles farther; That the King of Poland was at Raab on the 28th, and intended to be at Comorra on the 30th: That they had advice that the Turkish Army lay near Stoel Weissenburg, being reinforced with a body of fresh Troops, but that the Grand Visier was gone for Belgrade. Several Turks are daily brought hither Prisoners, who are all employed in the cleansing of this place and the Neighbourhood, and particularly in burying and throwing into the River the dead bodies, and the Carcasses of Horses and other Beasts, the stink whereof hath corrupted the Air, and made this place very sickly.

P. S. We have advice that the Imperial Army decamped on the 30th.

Vienna, Octob. 7. Our last Letters from Hungary inform us, That the Imperial Cavalry arrived the second Instant in the Neighborhood of Gutta, where they expected the coming up of their Foot and Cannon, which were some miles behind, and that so soon as these had joyned them, they would continue their march towards Newheusel; That the King of Poland was advanced with his Army very near that place, and that he had sent out some Troops to learn in what condition it was, who had had a rencounter with a Turkish Party, and had taken 50 prisoners. That three Soldiers which had been taken prisoners by the Turks, and made their escape after having been carried as far as Offen, arrived the third Instant in the Imperial Army, and gave an account that the Tartars were gone
